GREYWACKE SAUVIGNON BLANC 2009

NEW ZEALAND

'Taut, fresh sauvignon blanc with fine acidity and flavours suggesting gooseberry, green capsicum, mineral and lemon grass. Understated at first, the wine developed magnificently in the glass to reveal surprising power and flavour intensity. The best 2009 Sauvignon Blanc tasted to date.'

93 Points, Bob Campbell, www.bobswinereviews.com

'One of my top sauvignon picks of the year...'

Jo Burzynska, VIVA NZ HERALD

'...it is mouthfilling, with punchy, ripe stone-fruit and lime flavours, finely textured, crisp and lingering. It's a tightly structured, elegant wine that should unfold well during 2010'

4½ Stars Michael Cooper, MICHAEL COOPER'S BUYERS GUIDE 2010

'An evocatively perfumed, finely textured, edgy delight...'

John Saker, CUISINE

'Sophisticated, subtle, and fresh...gradually unleashes its power and leaves a lasting impression. It has the Judd trademark written all over it and will have immense appeal among those who appreciate his deft touch...It represents the quality of New Zealand sauvignon blanc that its most ardent admirers, here, and particularly overseas, expect to see.'

Warren Barton, SOUTHLAND TIMES

'Here's a crisp, cool, fresh new sauvignon blanc from one of Marlborough's most experienced sauvignon winemakers, Kevin Judd...an outstandingly full bodied, vibrant sauvignon blanc... Better than most? Absolutely!'

Restrained initially, it develops lovely floral aromas, succulent hints of lime, grapefruit, nectarines and ripe apples, texture, a tight structure and a long finish. 4 Stars, Charmian Smith, OTAGO DAILY TIMES

'If you buy one sauvignon blanc this week, buy Greywacke.'
5 Stars, Yvonne Lorkin, APN Regional Newspapers

'This is nothing like the sweaty, punchy loud styles of Marlborough savvy, it's fleshy and satisfying and one that at least I enjoyed a second glass of.'

'This fulfils every expectation for Judd's first wine, crystal-bright in colour, mouthfilling and steeped in grapefruit and stone fruit, its concentration surely reflecting low-yielding vines. The striking texture comes from a barrel-fermented portion, and the overall richness is balanced by lingering juicy acidity.'

96 Points, James Halliday, THE WEEKEND AUSTRALIAN MAGAZINE

'It's nicely understated - no eye-popping passionfruit and tropical salad here - and there's that brisk cleanness of mineral tang to finish.'

Jeni Port, THE AGE (VIC)

'...Kevin Judd has a lot riding on the first vintage of his new venture, and I reckon he exceeds expectations with a gorgeously multi-layered, floral, crystalline sav blanc.'

'A stunner. More complex and exciting than the average Marlborough sav blanc. Has that variety's grassy aromas but with complexity from a mineral edge. Clean, dry and delicious.'

Jeff Collerson, DAILY TELEGRAPH (NSW)

'It's aromatic, beautifully textured with herbal, slate and mineral characters on the palate and has lovely balance - if only all Marlborough savvies were this good.'

Winsor Dobbin, wdwineoftheweek.blogspot.com

'Securing the name (Greywacke) is a coup: the equivalent of somebody using Ayers Rock or Terra Rossa as a trademark in Australia...'

Philip White, www.drinkster.blogspot.com

'The best New Zealand sauvignon blanc that has been released in a couple of years. It has refined long, intense, restrained and typical Marlborough – lightly herbal and zesty – sauvignon flavours. While youthfully vibrant and pungent, it has aromatics that are hauntingly long and beautiful.'

John Jens, WESTERN SUBURBS WEEKLY (WA)

'Kevin Judd's new venture lives up to great expectations. Highly concentrated...with great length, balance and acid drive.'

94 Points, Louise Radman, ADVERTISER (SA)

'Precise crunchy gooseberry and fresh nettle...with a lifted fresh lingering finish. It's an appealing wine.'

'This is everything you would expect as a solo project from the man who spent 25 vintages creating Cloudy Bay. Pristine fruit and a proportion of wild ferment in old barrels give complexity to this richer, riper style. Its minerality is integrated and crafted.'

'A touch of Kiwi magic from Kevin Judd...this has a real intensity with tropical aromas and citrus flavours, tinged with a spine-tingling freshness.'

Anthony Rose, THE INDEPENDENT

'Debut vintage under Kevin Judd's own label... It's as good as you would hope – aromatic and intense, full, tangy and sustained, with gooseberry, herb and mineral flavours, a hint of spice and a fine, chalky texture.'

Joanna Simon, www.joannasimon-wineandfood.blogspot.com

'Doors open for you even in an economic crisis if your name is Judd. And deservedly so.'

Rebecca Gibb, www.rebeccagibb.com

'A pretty smart debut. Clean, pure, pithy and with a streak of citrus acidity and mineral intensity, it's New Zealand Sauvignon at its sleek and feline finest.'

Simon Woods, www.simonwoods.com

CANADA

'Has an intense Marlborough profile...great balance, great length. A startlingly fine Sauvignon.'

THE LANDSCAPE OF NEW ZEALAND WINE

'...Has to be the coffee-table wine book of the year.'

Charmian Smith, OTAGO DAILY TIMES NZ

'One of the most informative and visually appealing (books) of its kind, covers the national vineyard in its many parts from the Far North to the Deep South.'

Warren Barton, SOUTHLAND TIMES NZ

'Judd has widened his lens to celebrate the striking beauty of our vineyard regions from Northland to Central Otago...introduced with stimulating, accurate essays by wine writer Bob Campbell and Judd himself.'

The photography...is riveting.'

Michael Cooper, THE LISTENER NZ

'A visual banquet of colour and deft composition...'

John Saker, CUISINE NZ

'This beautifully presented hardback illustrates the beauty, diversity and breadth of one of the New World wine industry's great success stories... a truly stunning and most appealing book...'

Graham Beattie, beattiesbookblog.blogspot.com

'Through his often striking pictures of vineyards photographed at all times of the year and day, Judd takes readers on a visually thrilling excursion through the country's wine regions'

'Along with the most beautiful vineyard images I have ever seen, Judd provides a superb commentary on the terroir of our nation's wine regions, intricate maps and wonderful historic insights into our modern wine culture via essays written by Judd, and Bob Campbell MW.'

Yvonne Lorkin, APN Regional Newspapers NZ

'Judd must have been standing in line twice when the creative genes were being handed out. Not only can the guy make world-class wines, he's also a world-class photographer...'

Jeni Port, THE AGE AUSTRALIA

'A beautifully presented, fascinating and useful guide to the vineyard regions of New Zealand.'

Winsor Dobbin, GOLF AUSTRALIA

'...he has travelled the wine regions of New Zealand capturing the raw, often surreal beauty of its vineyards. The colours of the seasons, the people, the energy of a new vintage – it's all palpably real. Warning: you may be inspired to book a flight across the ditch to see for yourself.'

Jeni Port, SYDNEY MORNING HERALD AUSTRALIA

'Quite possibly one of the most beautiful wine books you'll ever lay your eyes on...'
